

CAREER AND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Under the proposed bond, a new high school would be built to serve students enrolled in technical career courses. This Career and Technical High School would provide a full-day curriculum in six different course academies designed to provide opportunities in 31 career fields.

Completion of the Career and Technical High School is scheduled for the fall of 2014, pending bond approval.

THE CAREER AND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL FOR PASADENA ISD

PRIMARY BENEFITS

A CAREER AND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL WOULD:

- Provide students with the opportunity to earn an associate degree and/or professional certification at the time of their high-school graduation through a partnership with San Jacinto College.
- More efficiently meet the specific employee-skill needs of businesses in the Houston/Pasadena area and provide students with curricula that better emphasize and develop those skills.
- Consolidate many technical education programs now scattered across various district facilities and expand the scope of technical training to 31 different fields. Current programs offer 20 different career pathways.
- Help relieve congestion at the Pasadena ISD's five existing high schools by providing a specialized campus for 1,500 to 1,700 students.
